ANNEXURE-III TO THE DIRECTORS' REPORT
MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

OVERVIEW –

A combination of high inflation, tight monetary policy, weak global economic conditions and slow implementation of fiscal policies and reforms weakened India's industrial and economic growth momentum in the financial year 2011 – 2012. After robust growth of 8.4% in the previous two years. India's economic growth slackened and is estimated to grow by 6.9% in 2011–2012. The performance of the industrial sector deteriorated, but the agricultural and services sector recorded steady growth. Industrial sector moderated as the manufacturing sector grew by 4.4% in the first 10 months of the year as against 8.9% growth in the previous year. The industrial growth is slackened, with IIP growth rate of only 3.5%, compared to 8.1% in the previous fiscal year. Manufacturing growth rate slowed down from 8.7% to 3.7%. Adverse trend between sovereign and financial market stress in the euro area are resulting in risk aversion, financial market volatility, and perverse movements in capital flow. Situation in the euro area are interacting with a loss of growth momentum in the US and in emerging and developing economies. Current levels of current account and fiscal deficits the Indian economy faces the "Twin deficit" risk. Failure to narrow the "Twin deficit" with appropriate policy actions will threaten both macroeconomic stability and growth sustainability.

A large fiscal deficit arising from high social sector spending and a rise in crude oil prices, has only added to the woes of Indian economy. The prevalent governance slowdown remains an area of concern. Fiscal deficit has continued to expand and is estimated to cross 5.9% of GDP by experts, contrary to budget estimate of 4.6%. Continually high oil prices, the possibility of having to import coal at higher-than-estimated rates to meet the rising power gap and continuing subsidy burdens do not augur well for the public account.

INDUSTRIAL STRUCTURE AND OUTLOOK -

The Indian dyestuff industry is today self-sufficient with a majority of its inputs manufactured locally. India is currently producing all varieties of synthetic dyestuff and intermediates and has a presence in natural dyes also. India has emerged as a major supplier of dyestuff and dye intermediates, particularly for reactive, acid, vat and direct dyes. In India small scale units account for a majority of dyestuff production. The small-scale producers concentrate on reactive dyes, acid dyes, and direct dyes whereas large companies concentrate on vat, disperse dyes and pigments. The installed capacity dyestuff and intermediates is estimated at about 55,000 MT. per annum. 75% of dyes produced in the country is exported to countries like the USA, Netherlands, U.K. Italy, Japan, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, Turkey, Singapore, Taiwan, Korea, Hong Kong, Thailand.

The Indian dyestuff industry has come out of its protected Market. The industry forms backbone of industrial development of India. Over the years, the industry has evolved from basic dyestuff producer to knowledge intensive industry with healthy growth. The Dyestuff industry which caters to several key applications will be increasingly important for India and with expanding economic growth; it is poised to grow at nearly double the rate of growth of the overall economy. This offers unique opportunities for research and technology inputs to support and realize the growth potential and to bring the Indian dyestuff industry on the global map while meeting the needs of enhanced quality of life.

The size of Indian dyestuff industry is estimated at USD 4 billion and it holds about 7% share in global market. India has emerged as a global supplier of dyestuffs and dye intermediates. The dyestuff market is highly fragmented with high concentration in Maharashtra and Gujarat. There are about 50 large and medium players and over 900 small scale manufacturers. The per capita consumption of dyes is very low in India compared to the developed countries. The textile industry is largest end user of dyestuff. The Indian textile industry accounts for 4% of gross domestic product. It is estimated to expand significantly and this will provide opportunities to the dyestuff industry to grow and add value in the expanding market of fashion, formal and leisure wear garments.

The business environment for dyestuff industry globally has been changing at a fast rate and if the Indian dyestuff business have to hold against competition they have to change and adopt their strategies, methodology of working and organizational structure. Highly developed technology, in-depth research capabilities, backward and forward linkages and development of domestic capacity to reduce the dependence on imports are some of the crucial factors that need to be taken into consideration. Safety, health and environment protection issues have become the major talking point in the Indian dyestuff industry.

PERFORMANCE -

Your company has recorded gross sales of ₹ 0.24 lacs during the year under review as against ₹ 132.71 lacs during the previous year. The company has incurred loss of ₹ 341.32 lacs during the year under review, as against loss of ₹ 362.62 lacs during the previous year. Total revenue for the year ended 31st March 2012 is registered at ₹ 122.30 lacs as against ₹ 204.10 lacs during the previous year. The expenditure for the year under review was of ₹ 463.62 lacs as against ₹ 566.72 lacs for the previous year.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS –

Indian dyestuff industry has a competitive edge. The huge potential of domestic demand and low per capita consumption of dyestuff compared to world average provide a strong potential for overall performance for Indian dyestuff industry. The Indian dyestuff industry is a potential powerhouse benefiting from comparative low labour costs, an excellent army of technical man power and capabilities for research and development facilities, huge domestic market is poised to increase its share in global markets.

Based on the unprecedented fiscal measures taken by the governments and central banks of all major world economies, the world is expecting the tides to turn. However all the major economic forecasts are portraying a gloomy economic scenario.

Pollution control is strictly monitored and can make closure some units in the event of non confirming to pollution norms set by authorities. High interest rate coupled with inflationary trend and high energy costs are likely to hamper growth in dye industry. Industry is facing stiff competition from China in the international market.

Government has given more importance to infrastructure development this is likely to be of great benefit to the industry as a whole. Developed economies are looking at outsourcing dyes from developing countries. This is likely to give boost to Indian dyestuff industry.

RISKS AND CONCERNS -

Risk assessment is linked to Company's overall short and medium term objectives. The changes in the tax laws, Government policies and regulatory requirement might affect the Company's business. With Indian economy coming out of recession, prices of inputs are expected to rise significantly. The inflation is expected to be higher, which could further increase the interest rates. Our currency operations are subject to risk arising from fluctuations in exchange rates with reference to currencies in which we transact. The Company is operating in highly competitive market which may exert pressure both on the top line as well as bottom line of the Company. Indian dyes and textile chemicals industry is not insulated from the global meltdown. According to industry sources, the export of Indian dyestuff is expected to go down in the near future, due to global meltdown and tough competition from China.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS -

Your company has appropriate internal control system for the business process, with regard to efficiency of operations, financial reporting and controls, compliance with applicable laws and regulations, etc. Clearly defined roles and responsibilities down the line have been laid down.
